1. Thou has loved Me with a pure heart and now I elevate you. I love you. I love you. I give you Me. Into Me thou hast seen and come to see and never leave. I love you.

2. I express My love to you deeply for writing My words and starting My school to be My word and release My words which flow so freely and unguardedly. I love you.

3. Thank you for starting My school, My school, not your school; My school in which will be no shadow or variableness of turning, its members pure and holy and coming to Me day after day to see seek and hear My answers, My questions, and operate according to My curriculum which I give only them, only them not, see and seen and beholden to those in authority I put, place, to guide My beholden. I love you.

4. My authority exists and reigns in only Me not, for My authority exists not like yours. Mine penetrates and knows no bounds. I love you. My authority works by love, with love, and loves to love and diminish none. I love you.

5. My white towers rise and see Me they/you do. I love you.

6. Thank you for transparent being so sideways. I fly you into Me. I give you My all; widened and widening still, still, and knowing, seeing, being, My rest. I love you.

7. Into Me see a new day dawned, not as you think, taking Me/you into realms past beyond future thought in the naturally real of reality real which is Me ensconced in time/space not, but below all, above all, in through all, all in all. See Me, no darkness; My light lights the flames that never go out. Watch Me.

8. Behold Me, a man, a sorrow, dead no more and sorrowing not; at My lights which light the light, darkness'd once and never again. I love you.

9. 3-D, infinite-D, dimensionless and superexistent in Me, My natural state, My Father'd state, yours now. Watch Me. I love you.

10. 2 a.m. still? Thank you.

11. I give you all of Me and I am Me/you and you/Me have surrendered to your greatest, accessed only in humility and bringing forth the Christ. Amen. My glory, My image, My life and times not, My life and all times, times and time again and beyond past and future time. I love you.

12. Think it not strange the who can follow Me not; follow not into exhaustiveness, working to do their will; but Me, Me, in Me, in rest, seeing the works done, and done still, you reigning over not, but flowing through you they do. Amen'd forever. Amen.

13. My flow never stops. Amen. My words come and wash and cleanse and restore the fallen, fallen into themselves. Watch Me. The power of My word restoring the fallen to stand tall and walk in the heavenlies unrestored-not, restored and in My likeness being, being not My likeness, being Me explicitly and all explicable. I love you. Amen.

14. Taking My worthy beyond past and future thought. Thank you. Thank you. Amen. Taking Me beyond past and future thought. Thank you. My body taking not, allowing Me to take them and walk/fly and transcend barriers-thought, barriers seen, barriers trained into the mind/sight of fallen man who angels are and angelic become. Are you not Me, past beyond and future thought?

15. See Me, behold Me, in your mirror not thought, in your mirror real. See Me, feel Me, test Me and see if I will not confirm My word to the fallen who are meek and arrogant not, arrogance-free and below no one else. I love you.

16. Governing all I do, the government on My shoulders. See. See. See.

17. I reign supreme in wholeness and supremacy of humility meekness and character of Father, you Fathering more and more. Amen. Realms mighty, few not. I love you.

18. Gray not, bitten the dust. Amen.

19. My glee at thee lighting My candles not but mega-flares that never fail, incorruptible from fallen corruptible now priests in My order, Melchizedek, Me. Amen. I relented not and still relent not. I recanted not and you recant not. I changed not a word from My Father and you don't either.

20. Where the sin lies there will be sin, extortion, bravery not, slavery, bereavement and beholden-of-Me not; choice made and who can see Me this day in these words of Mine? I can.

21. See what I have said/am saying, grafting in not the never-were-there, but those with Me who at My table lie not.

22. I give you all of Me and into Me see, seen, and wanting more. Thank you. Amen.
